HARRISBURG.

Proceedings of the Legislature.

After our report closed yesterday, the followng transpired in the Legi lature: -The following private bilis were passed in the House bill releasing certain collateral inheriince tax of G. W. Fahnestock. Senate bill providing for the appointment of superintendents of highways in the Twentysecond and Twenty-third wards.

Senate supplement to the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society. Senate bill exempting the property of the In-dustrial Home for Guls, in Third ward, from Senate bill vacating a portion of Green lane in Twenty first ward.

Senate supplement to consolidation act relative to appoin ment of municipal claums. Senate bill authorizing Laurel Hill Cemetery to hold additional lands.

The special business of the evening was the discussion of the differn h constitutional amendment, and its ratification by this State. The speeches were by Cornman, Democrat, Res., Republican, and others, and were continued to a late hour without reaching a vote. The hall of the House was crowded. The arguments were in substance the same as those urged by prominent leaders of the Democratic and Re-publican parties in Congress at the time of the consideration of the constitutional amendment.

The following preso ble and resolutions were agreed upon by the Democrats in caucus during the afternoon, and an attempt was made at the opening of the discussion, by Mr. Rogers, of Polladelpnia, to bring them before the House. They represent the views of the Democracy:— Whereas It is provided in the State constitution that all the amendments thereto must be adopted by two successive Legislatures and ratified by the people: and whereas, the amendment to the Constitution of the United States known as the diteenth amendment, now before the House, will, if ratided by the Legislatures of three fourths of the several states, practically and radically siter and amend the third section of article 1 of our State Constitution; and whereas, the citizens of Pennsylvania may, by votes of the Legislatures of the States whose institutions are foreign to our own, be deprived of the sacred right of determining what changes, if any, shall be made in their organic law

Resolved. That the consideration of the socalled pit cuch amendment be pos poped outil the second Tuesday of January, 1870, for action of the Legislature, then in session, so that the sovereign people of Penns, Ivania may, through the representatives elected for the purpole, record their decree in faver of its adoption or

The above preamble and resolution were objected to by Mr. Davis, Republican, and were withdrawn.

Murder in Virginia.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 16.—A murder was committed on Sunday morning, about four miles from Hamp on, on the Yorktown foud, the particulars of which, so far as we can ascer-

the particulars of which, so far as we can ascertain, were as toflows:—

It stems that a man named John Thomas, who resides near Little B thel, was, aroused by some noise in the vicinity of his smoke bouse, and got up to ascertain the cause. Fearing that it might be robbers, he took down his shot gun and passed out of the back door. He advanced continuity in the smoke house, and there forced cautiously to the smoke house, and there found three stalwart negroes busily engaged in prying open the door.

As he came up near them he asked: -"What are you doing there?" when they all three ared as him and then fled. The halls took effect, one in the face, one in the shoulder, and the other in the vival regions near the heart. Toe shots in the vival regions near the heart. Toe shots did not prove instantly (ata), and medical assistance was at once sent for, but when the doctor arrived he informed the family that It omas was mortally woonded, and could survive but a short tine. The outrage occurred atout two o'clock on Sunday marning, after which the wounded man could scarcely speak

He st-ted that the newroes were strangers to nim, and did not belong in that vicinity, though one of them he had seen hef ire. Thomas was not more than sen feet from the party when be was shot, which accounts for the accuracy of their aim. He kapered mail peon on the would call the attention of the public to his

NEW COLDEN EAGLE FURNACE.

This is an entirely new heater. It is so constructed as to at once commend itself to general favor, being a combination of wrought and cast from. It is very simple in its construction, and is perfectly airlight; self-cleaning, havington pipes or drams to be taken out and cleaned. It is 70 arranged with apright flues as to produce a larger mount of heat from the same weight of coal than any farnace now in use. The hygrometic condition of the air as produced by my new arrangement of evaporation will at once domonstrate that it is the only Hot Air Furnace that will produce a perefectly heatshy atmosphere.

Those in want of a complete Heating Apparatus would do well to call and examine the Golden Eagls.
